

Taylor Apartments - Building 3

Troy, New York

architecture+ designed the gut renovation and redevelopment of this apartment building. It includes a total of sixty one one-, two- and three-bedroom units. Our design for the first floor incorporates a tenant services office as well as support spaces.

Accessibility was improved through extensive site work and two new passenger elevators. In addition, we created outdoor gathering spaces for tenants. The project was completed on time and on budget.