

architecture+

Joseph L. Bruno Stadium Hudson Valley Community College

Troy, New York

The existing campus sports fields and ancillary structures had to be relocated to create this 4,500 seat Class A minor league baseball complex. From team selection to opening day, the project was completed in approximately 16 months.

We contributed to the design and construction of the home and visitor's clubhouses, administrative office space, concessions and retail space, an academic classroom building and elevated suites.