

Hazelden Youth Treatment Facility

Kerhonkson, New York

architecture+ completed a feasibility study and Conceptual Design for a new 75-bed youth treatment facility on a 40 acre site in Upstate New York. The Hazelden Betty Ford Foundation is a national leader for alcohol and substance abuse treatment based in Minneapolis with facilities located throughout the United States. The youth facility in Minneapolis served as the baseline from which the new facility was developed.