

architecture+

St. Vincent de Paul Roman Catholic Church

Cobleskill, New York

The congregation of St. Vincent de Paul had outgrown its 1894 building. We prepared a comprehensive Feasibility Study and Master Plan to identify viable solutions. Since it was not feasible to expand the existing building, a new church was constructed.

The original building will be renovated to provide educational and small group meeting spaces.